

Y3 - SCRUMDIDDLEYUMPTIOUS - KNOWLEDGE ORGANISER

CONTINENTS OF THE WORLD

FAIR TRADE

Fair Trade is a process used by organisations around the world to make sure that they buy and sell goods that have been produced from farms that pay a fair price to their farmers and for their materials.

COCOA TRADE AND TRANSPORTATION

The cocoa trade is one of the most prosperous in the world due to the ever growing demand for cocoa products. Cocoa is the basis for many products, including chocolate. The cocoa plant is native to the Amazon Rainforest in South America and is shipped all across the world.

COUNTRIES IN SOUTH AMERICA:

Highlighted section = Location of the Amazon Rainforest

Northern Hemisphere - The northern half of the world. The UK lies in the northern hemisphere.

Southern Hemisphere - The southern half of the world. The majority of South America is in the southern hemisphere.

Human Feature - Built by people.

Includes: cities, towns, shops, offices, homes, schools, roads, bridges.

Physical feature - Created naturally.

Includes: beaches, forests, hills, rivers, mountains, cliffs, weather.

CONTRASTING AERIAL PHOTOS:

Rio De Janeiro, Brazil

London, England